WELCOME

Welcome!

It's a great time to belong to the CAA Saskatchewan family.

Your CAA membership opens the door to a world of valuable benefits and savings that travel with you almost anywhere you go in North America, Mexico and even in Europe. We want to provide Members with freedom and confidence when they go exploring.

You are encouraged to take a few moments to read through this handbook and discover the many advantages of being a CAA Member. This valuable information will help ensure you understand how to get the most from your membership.

Along with the roadside assistance, CAA Members appreciate and value the CAA Rewards®, Insurance, Travel, and Automotive benefits that are included with their membership.

If you have any questions or concerns, please visit caask.ca, call us or visit the CAA Store nearest you. We look forward to serving you.

CAA Saskatchewan Memberships

A CAA Saskatchewan membership provides 24/7 roadside assistance service and much more! CAA provides competitive insurance products, travel services, and automotive services. We also reward our members with exclusive savings, discounts, and perks with retail partners across Saskatchewan and North America.

A membership covers the member, not the vehicle, and is not transferrable. That is, any member who is driving, or is a passenger in, an approved vehicle will be eligible for service depending on their membership level. Memberships do not cover non-members, relatives, spouses, or friends.

Membership dues are non-refundable with the exception of deceased Members.

Keep your CAA membership card on hand when requesting roadside assistance and to access all the other Member benefits outlined in this handbook.

Primary Member: Is the main cardholder on the CAA account. You are able to manage and maintain your membership over the phone, in-store, online, and through the CAA Mobile App.

Associate Member: Any individual who is 16 years old or over, living at the same residence and mailing address, can be added to the Primary Member's CAA account to receive the same coverage. Exceptions are allowed for school attendance away from home.

Membership Levels

Depending on your membership level, access to Trip Interruption and Vehicle Return benefits may be available. Refer to this handbook for more details.

Value: Is for people who do not need roadside assistance but want the exclusive benefits of a CAA membership that includes savings through CAA Insurance, CAA Travel, Shell, and many other retail partners in Saskatchewan and across North America.

Basic: Is recommended for people who live in urban centres or commute short distances, with towing coverage up to 5km, extrication, battery boosts, battery service, tire changes, fuel delivery, and lockout service. CAA also provides coverage for bicycles and will transport you and your bike up to 5km.

Plus & Plus RV: Is best for people who do any highway driving and/or ride a motorcycle. Providing everything in a Basic membership plus additional towing of up to 160 km, free fuel up to 10L, and additional locksmith coverage. With Plus RV, coverage is extended to dual-wheel campers, truck campers, raised-roof vans, motorhomes, and utility/recreational trailers.

Premier & Premier RV: Is recommended for adventurers who like to travel long distances and want the maximum benefits from their membership. Provides everything in the Plus & RV Plus membership with an additional tow up to 320 km and an extra roadside assistance call. Also included is home lockout service, trip interruption assistance, complimentary two-day car rental with a tow, notary service, and a dedicated toll free number for roadside assistance service.

Some conditions may apply to each membership level. For more information on coverage eligibility and restrictions, refer to the Roadside Assistance Terms and Conditions on our website.

MEMBERSHIP SERVICES

Trip Interruption

Trip Interruption is an exclusive benefit for Premier members. It can help offset certain out-of-pocket expenses should you run into trouble with getting home or to your destination.

Premier Members may be eligible for Trip Interruption in the event of a mechanical breakdown.

For reimbursement consideration, a vehicle must be disabled for 24 hours or more and the member must be more than 160 km from home. Costs incurred within 72 hours of the incident may be eligible.

Eligibility is based on the membership level at the time of incident which must be in good standing and active for at least a year.

Eligible Expenses

- ▶ Accommodations - $150/day
- ▶ Meals - $50/day per Primary/Associate member
- ▶ Car rental/taxi/private transportation - $75/day
- ▶ Commercial Transportation (bus/train/ferry/air fare) - $600

Itemized receipts must be in the member's name and are required for all expenses being claimed. The maximum amount allowable is $600 CAD.

Vehicle Return

Premier (including Premier RV) Members

Premier Members that encounter an unexpected illness or injury that prevents them from completing their trip may be eligible for the Vehicle Return benefit which provides up to $500 for transportation of the vehicle back to their primary residence. Proof of illness/injury must be provided by a licensed medical facility or practitioner.

Terms and Conditions:

Trip Interruption and Vehicle Return benefits are only available for travel within Canada and the USA. For more details and the claim form, refer to caask.ca/trip-interruption.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES AND BENEFITS

CAA Saskatchewan Magazine

The informative and popular CAA Saskatchewan Magazine in digital, PDF format, is available quarterly in the spring, summer, fall and winter at caask.ca/magazine.

Members can enjoy timely news and updates from CAA Saskatchewan plus the latest trends and insights on Travel, Insurance, and Automotive. As a dedicated safety advocate, Members will learn more about the club's advocacy and safety programs for motorists, cyclists, pedestrians, and travellers. Consumer education topics on EVs, e-Bikes, fuel efficiency, and data privacy are also covered.

Advocacy, Safety & Public Affairs

Since CAA Saskatchewan first opened its doors in 1917, the organization actively represents Members and public interest to provincial and federal governments, decision makers and industry leaders on various safety issues including road and air travel and the environment.

CAA's advocacy and safety programs address public awareness and education on topics such as texting and driving, distracted driving, impaired and cannabis impaired driving, gas prices, senior drivers and CarFit, road safety and smart infrastructure, plus vehicle and bike safety.

caask.ca/safety

Since 1951, CAA Saskatchewan has owned and managed the CAA School Safety Patrol program. There are more than 3,000 patrollers in close to 100 schools from 42 Saskatchewan communities.

caask.ca/patrollers

School zones are increasingly becoming more dangerous which is why CAA has added School Zone Safety and the CAA School Zone Safety Assessments to our safety programs.

caask.ca/schoolzonesafety

CAA also provides consumer information on driving costs, fuel efficiency, hybrid, electric, autonomous, and connected vehicles, gas price monitoring, e-Bikes, smart infrastructure, and data privacy.

Approved Hotels & Motels

Each year thousands of establishments are inspected to be CAA/AAA approved. Besides meeting the CAA/AAA high standard of quality, many display the CAA/AAA “approved” emblem that indicates a particular interest in serving Members. These establishments are given “Diamond Ratings” (one to five diamonds) to reflect quality.

Saskatchewan has two Four Diamond hotels including Saskatoon’s Delta Bessborough and the Hotel Saskatchewan, Autograph Collection, in Regina.

While these establishments are not required to offer a discount to CAA/AAA Members, if they choose to do so, the CAA Rewards icon appears in the listing.

If you are overcharged or dissatisfied with a service you receive, complete a comment form available at any CAA Store and we will assist you in resolving the problem. Original receipts are required.

Merchandise

CAA Saskatchewan offers a wide variety of merchandise including Samsonite luggage, Tilley Hats & Clothing, auto and travel accessories. Shop online at caask.ca/shop or visit a CAA Store.

Members receive special pricing on most merchandise and earn 10% in CAA Dollars.

CAA Rewards®

The CAA Rewards program offers Members savings, discounts, and offers on hotels, dining, shopping, and more!

Simply show your CAA membership card at participating retail locations or shop online <https://portal.caarewards.ca/caask>

Rewards

DISCOUNTS
REWARDS®

The CAA Rewards program offers Members two ways to save:

CAA Discounts®: Immediate, point of sale discounts on merchandise or services at participating partners.

CAA Dollars®: Earn CAA Dollars in-store and online when you shop at participating partner locations.

Every CAA Dollar earned is worth $1 Canadian. Track your earned CAA Dollars through your online account or the CAA Mobile App.

Redeem your CAA Dollars on a variety of CAA products and services including travel, merchandise, insurance, at a CAA Car Care Centre, or use them towards your membership renewal

For more information, go to caask.ca/membership/rewards

Roadside Assistance

CAA Saskatchewan Members are allowed four (4) calls per year for Roadside Assistance, with the exception of Premier & Premier RV Members who are allowed five (5) calls.

Roadside assistance is available 24/7, without charge, from the nearest available CAA contractor. Roadside assistance service can be requested through the CAA Mobile App or by calling 1.800.222.4357 or 1.800.564.6222 (press 1).

Membership Eligibility

Any Member who is driving or is a passenger in an approved vehicle is eligible for service. A CAA membership covers the member, not the vehicle, and is non-transferable. It will not cover service to non-members, relatives, spouses or friends, nor will it be rendered to an unattended vehicle. Members will be required to show their membership card and photo identification at the time of service. If circumstances (acceptable to CAA) prevent a member from being present, the member must advise CAA that a representative will present their membership card when the service provider arrives. The representative may be required to produce two additional pieces of identification. In extenuating circumstances, an exception may be made if prior arrangements have been made with CAA Saskatchewan.

New Memberships - Conditions

A 24-hour waiting period applies to new Basic memberships for roadside assistance services. For new Plus, Premier and RV memberships, all benefits and coverages will apply except for towing, which will be restricted to 5 km during a 7-day waiting period. Additional kilometres exceeding 5 km will be at the Member's expense and a per kilometre rate will apply. After the 7-day waiting period, full towing coverage will take effect as per the membership.

Terms and Conditions

For more information on vehicle eligibility, restrictions, and complete details on roadside assistance services provided, refer to our Roadside Assistance Terms and Conditions on our website.

<https://caask.ca/membership/plans>

Service Comments

CAA Saskatchewan's goal is to provide you with the highest quality roadside assistance services available. All CAA/AAA organizations maintain the highest quality services available throughout Canada and the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii. However, certain benefits may vary from club to club. Any comments you may have will enable us to continue improving our service.
